

CHARLOTTE PLAINS STATION

GROUP TRAVEL PRODUCT SHEET

PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

Charlotte Plains is a family owned and operated sheep station near Cunnamulla. Established back in the 1860s the property continues to run several thousand head of sheep. It boasts a historic bore, sunk into the Great Artesian Basin to a depth of 561m; a much needed water source for the property via a network of bore drains and piping. Visitors to the property can enjoy a relaxing soak in these mineral waters in quirky outdoor bath tubs at the bore-head. They can also join a tour of the property to gain an amazing insight into the station history and life on the land. Included in this tour is a visit to the historic shearing shed, still in use today and the Home of Memorabilia with everything from racing history, old magazines, tales and ball gowns. Groups are welcome at Charlotte Plains for day visits and overnight stays. Catering is available on request. Bookings are essential.

Facilities: Family Home of Memorabilia; Coach Parking; Toilets; Onsite Catering; Hop-on Guide Services; Shearer's Quarters; Powered & Unpowered Camping; Large well equipped kitchen; Camp fire area
